

SUBSCRIBE

SIGN IN

OFF DUTY TRAVEL

A Holiday Gift Guide for Travel Lovers: 7 Ideas Under $300 (And One Splurge)

To celebrate the return to the outside world, we've devised a list of 8 unusual gifts—for jet-setting sybarites, ambitious staycationers and kids on the move

TRAVEL TREATS What to gift your favorite globe-trotter? A few choice ideas, from the packable to the pampering.

Wall Street Journal

PHOTO: F. MARTIN RAMIN/ THE WALL STREET JOURNAL,
STYLING BY SHARON RYAN; LUCY HAN (ILLUSTRATION)

Next Best Thing to a Luxury Hotel Getaway? Claridge's Pajamas

Leave it to Claridge's—the posh London hotel known for coddling royalty, heads of state and well-groomed dogs—to raise the bar on sleepwear. The Mayfair mainstay now sells a limited-edition women's pajama set, designed by Rebecca Marks and produced by Derek Rose, a 100-year-old clothing brand. With its fan print, a nod to Claridge's Art Deco design, and not-so-subtle hotel crest embroidered in gold thread, this elegant loungewear practically demands breakfast in bed. Claridge's Women's Pyjamas in Jade, about $303, shop.claridges.co.uk